

STAGECOACH RESTAURANT

@ G O U L D I N G ' S L O D G E

In the early 1920's, Harry Goulding and his bride, nicknamed "Mike," moved to Monument Valley to establish a trading post on the outskirts of the Navajo Reservation. When the Great Depression hit in the 1930's, the Navajo Nation suffered immensely. So, Harry and Mike set out to Hollywood, CA to convince John Ford Monument Valley was the perfect location for his next movie. Days later, John Ford and his crew began filming "Stagecoach" starring John Wayne. The rest is history.
